

Build a Better Income for Yoga Teachers & Healers

Reality Check-in

What was your gross income last year (before expenses, taxes, etc.) _____

What do you project your gross income to be this year? _____

What would you like your income to be next year? _____

What are you putting into place now for that to become a reality?

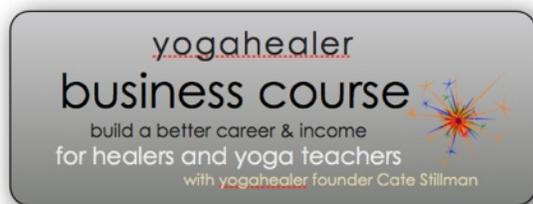

When is the best time, every week, for you to work on your business?
Add that to the schedule now.

What support community or course are you going to take to get the skills you need to make building a better income a reality?

Who is currently doing your dream job? Let's focus on the horizon.

Build a Better Income for Yoga Teachers & Healers

Let's make a plan.

What is the work you most want to do, that you are ready to do now? (Meaning, you don't need another degree to do).

Who is the perfect client that fits into this work? Write a glowing description of your perfect client.

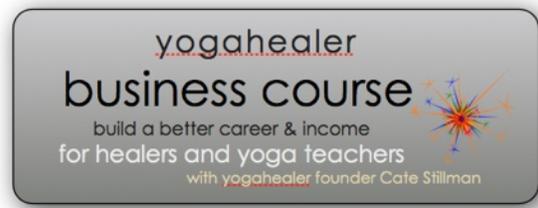

What are they needing help with? What do they most want? What is the end result they are looking for?

What better service can you offer them, or a group of perfect clients, that guarantees the end result they are looking for?

What useful marketing materials can you generate that would help them find you... and be fun to put out there for your perfect clients?

Build a Better Income
for Yoga Teachers & Healers

notes!

